Action: Forward test results to Brussels
Ref: DIR 43746	D. A. Neysman 4 April memo
1. Attached please find PRQ Part II and the results of Subject's Wechsler-Bellevue test administered by ANCASBOWARY/29 on 8 March. An expanded PRQ Part I follows under separate cover. A/29 was trained in giving this test by the undersigned and gave it not only to the latter, but also to [] He had actually four complete dry runs before he gave it to Subject. He succeeded in giving [] the impression that he was quite used to giving this test. He paced the test slowly, made no fumbles or mistakes with the stopwatch and had the proper non-committal attitude. 2. [], it goes virtually without saying, will be fascinated to learn the results of the test. It is impossible to say whether the fact that one Greek Catholic tested another had anything to do with the repeated references to moral standards made by the Subject. 3. If A/29 now goes to New York on his proposed annual leave, the use of the Subject, the results of the test as well as possible cover arrangements for the scholarship and travel grant could be discussed directly with him at that time.
